

Eddy Farm School for Horse and Rider

1815 South St. Extension, Middlebury, VT 05753

7th Annual Centered Riding Clinic

With Level IV Centered Riding Instructor,

Lucile Bump

Saturday-Sunday, August 6-7, 2011

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Lucile Bump owns and operates Southmowing Stables in Guilford, VT, and hunts regularly with the Guilford Hounds. She is a Senior Level IV Centered Riding Instructor and has been teaching Centered Riding[®] to all levels and disciplines of riders for more than 20 years. As an internationally travelled clinician, Lucile has taught in Vienna, Austria, Canada, Denmark, England, Germany, Holland, Scotland and Uruguay. Students also come to Southmowing Stables from all over the world and in the United States. Lucile rode with Centered Riding[®] founder, Sally Swift, who developed and wrote two books on the subject, Centered Riding and Centered Riding 2: Further Exploration. To learn more about Lucile and Centered Riding[®] please visit <http://www.southmowing.com> and <http://www.centeredriding.org/>.

This is a two-day clinic, and Sunday builds on Saturday's work. Mornings will focus on interactive lectures and the afternoons will be group riding lessons. Groups will be composed of four riders maximum who are of similar riding ability.

Fees and Options:

Auditors: $25; $20 for 15yrs and under, per day
Riders: $160 (2 days); $80 Saturday only
Stalls: $20 per day, includes bedding
School horses available: $30 per ride

Please contact Farm Manger Margaret Bojanowski at (802) 388-6196, or email at www.eddyfarmschool.org

We look forward to riding with you!